...for the O.P no. 2.

1. By consent of the learned counsel appearing for the respective parties, both the interlocutory application, being CRAN 1 of 2026, and the main revisional application, being CRR 2275 of 2025, are taken up together for final hearing and disposal today on the ground of an amicable settlement and compromise reached between the parties.

2. The instant revisional application, along with the connected application, has been preferred for recording a joint compromise and amicable settlement of the dispute between the parties, and for the consequential quashing of the impugned criminal proceeding arising out of Serampore Women Police Station Case No. 16 of 2025 dated 27th April, 2025, under Sections 85 / 3(5) of the Bharatiya Nyaya Sanhita (BNS), pending before the learned Chief Judicial Magistrate at Hooghly.

3. Learned counsel for the petitioners draws the attention of this Court to paragraphs 3 to 6 of the application to demonstrate that all disputes and differences between the parties have been fully and finally resolved. The application has been jointly affirmed by Dipankar Kunar and Sanjukta Kunar. A Memorandum of Understanding and family settlement has also been annexed to the petition, setting out the detailed terms and conditions of the settlement along with the stipulations contained under Schedule 'A' and Schedule 'B'. The said Memorandum of Understanding has been duly executed and signed by both Dipankar Kunar and Sanjukta Kunar.
4. Learned counsel appearing for the opposite party acknowledges the settlement and submits that the entire dispute has indeed been amicably resolved in terms of the Memorandum of Understanding. It is submitted that no further disputes, claims, or grievances remain pending between the parties.
5. Learned counsel for the petitioners submits that although the offences alleged are non-compoundable in nature, the quashing of the criminal proceeding in view of the voluntary settlement will serve the ends of justice and secure a quietus to the matrimonial discord.
6. Having perused the contents of CRAN 1 of 2026 and CRR 2275 of 2025, along with the annexed Memorandum of Understanding, family settlement, and undertakings, I am fully convinced that the matter has been genuinely and amicably settled between the parties. As such, no useful purpose would be served by keeping the criminal proceeding alive or continuing with the trial in Serampore Women Police Station Case No. 16 of 2025.

7. Accordingly, both the application (CRAN 1 of 2026) and the revisional application (CRR 2275 of 2025) are allowed.
8. The criminal proceeding being Serampore Women Police Station Case No. 16 of 2025 dated 27th April, 2025, under Sections 85 / 3(5) of the BNS, pending before the learned Chief Judicial Magistrate at Hooghly, is hereby quashed in view of the settlement between the parties.
9. There shall be no order as to costs.
10. The interim order, if any, stands vacated.
11. Urgent photostat certified copy of this order, if applied for, be given to the parties upon compliance with requisite formalities.
