In Re: An application for anticipatory bail under Section 482 of the BNSS, 2023.

And

In the matter of : Shibashis Pal @ Gobardhan Pal & Ors.

.... Petitioners

Ms. Sonali Das

...for the Petitioners

Mr. Moyukh Mukherjee
Mr. Saswata Chatterjee

...for the State

Learned counsel appearing on behalf of the petitioners submits as follows. There was a fight between neighbours over the construction of a building. Both sides suffered injuries, but none was grievous in nature. There are case and counter case, the first one having been started from the end of the petitioners.

Learned counsel appearing on behalf of State relies on the case diary and opposes the prayer for anticipatory bail. He refers to the statements of the witnesses including the victims and the injury report, which, however, does not show infliction of any grievous injury.

Considering the above and the other materials available in the case diary, I am inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

Accordingly, in the event of arrest, the petitioners shall be released on bail upon furnishing a bond of Rs. 10,000/- with two sureties of like amount each, one of whom must be local, to the satisfaction of Investigating Officer/Arresting Officer and subject to the conditions as laid down under Section 482 of the Bharatiya Nagarik Suraksha Sanhita and on further condition that the petitioners no. 1, 2, 6 and 8 shall co-operate with the investigation and meet the I.O. once a fortnight till submission of report in final form and shall not threaten or intimate witnesses.

The application for anticipatory bail is, thus, allowed.

Urgent photostat certified copy of this order may be delivered to the learned Advocates for the parties, if applied for, upon compliance of all formalities.
