And

In the matter of: Yusub Sk @ Yousof Sk & others.

.... Petitioners

Mr. Arnab Chatterjee
Mr. Anisur Rahaman

...for the petitioners

Ms. Shabana Hasin
Ms. Samima Akter

...for the de facto

Ms. Priti Kar Bagchi

..for the State

Memo of evidence filed on behalf of the State is taken on record.

Learned counsel appearing on behalf of the petitioners submits as follows. Two groups of boys got involved in a fight with each other. Injuries were inflicted, but none was grievous in nature.

Learned counsel appearing on behalf of the de facto complainant submits that the de facto complainant's son was brutally assaulted by the petitioners.

Learned counsel appearing on behalf of the State relies on the case diary and opposes the prayer for anticipatory bail. He refers to the statements of witnesses which implicate all the petitioners and the injury report which shows the infliction of injuries on vital part of the body, like the head as well as on the hand. But, the injuries were not grievous in nature.

Considering the above and the other materials available in the case diary, although I am inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners, their movement needs to be restricted for a limited period.

In the event of arrest, the petitioners shall be released on bail upon furnishing a bond of Rs.10,000/- each with two sureties of like amount each, one of whom must be local, to the satisfaction of the Arresting Officer and also be subject to the conditions as laid down under Section 438(2) of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973 corresponding to Section 482(2) of the BNSS, 2023 and on further conditions that the petitioners shall co-operate with the investigation and shall not threaten or intimidate the witnesses. The petitioners shall meet the I.O. once a week till submission of report in final form. The petitioners shall stay outside the jurisdiction of Raghunathganj Police Station for a period of four months from this date except for meeting the I.O. or attending the jurisdictional Court.

The application for anticipatory bail is, thus, disposed of.

Urgent photostat certified copy of this order be supplied to the parties, if applied for, as early as possible.
