....for the alleged contemnors

None appears for the applicant at the time of call.
No accommodation has been sought for either.

The learned advocate appearing for the alleged contemnors submits a memo dated February 2, 2026, which is taken on record.

It appears from the said order that in compliance with the directions passed by this Court, the Board has formally renewed the sanctioned plan.

In view thereof, the contempt application stands disposed of recording that the order and directions have been complied with.
