1. Petitioner stands accused in a police case involving the NDPS Act, 1985. Materials in the case diary throw up statements of the co-accused implicating the petitioner made while in custody. There is no criminal antecedent so far as the petitioner is concerned. Attention of the Court is not drawn to any such antecedent.
2. In such circumstances, I am of the view that the petitioner is able to overcome the restrictions under Section 37 of the NDPS Act, 1985.
3. Consequently, I grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. Accordingly, I direct that in the event of arrest the petitioner shall be released on bail upon furnishing a bond of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand Only), with two sureties of like amount each, to the satisfaction of the arresting officer and also be subject to the conditions as laid down under Section 438(2) of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973 corresponding to Section 482(2) of the Bharatiya Nagarik Suraksha Sanhita, 2023 and on further condition that the petitioner shall report before the Investigating Officer once in a week till the conclusion of the investigation and on further condition that the petitioner shall appear on every date before the jurisdictional Court on and from the date fixed for appearance of the accused and in default the jurisdictional Court will pass appropriate order to secure the presence of the petitioner in Court including cancelling the anticipatory bail granted without further reference to this Court.
5. Prayer for anticipatory bail of the petitioner is allowed.
