1. Petitioner seeks anticipatory bail.

2. Learned Senior Advocate appearing for the petitioner submits that, the petitioner is falsely implicated in the instant case. He submits that, the petitioner belongs to a particular political party. It is by reason of such political affiliation that the police case was started. He refers to the merits of the matter and submits that the allegation as against the petitioner is that, the petitioner allegedly held out threats for withdrawal of a police complaint. He points out that, on the date the alleged threat is said to be made, the petitioner was in custody.
