Vs.
The State of West Bengal & ors.

Adv. Achin Jana,
Adv. Chetna Rustagi,
Adv. Debojyoti Kumar,

... for the petitioner.

Adv. Md. Ahsanuz Zaman,
Adv. Kakali Pal,

...for the State.

Affidavit of service filed by the petitioner and the report submitted by the State are taken on record.

None appears for the private respondents despite service.

Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the petitioner is the son of the 9th respondent, brother of the 10th respondent and the 11th respondent is the wife of the 10th respondent. The petitioner alleges that he was forcibly ousted from the house by the private respondents. The personal documents and articles of the petitioner and his wife including trade license, IT files, Pan card, Aadhar Card etc. are lying in the said house. He seeks police assistance to get back the said documents. The petitioner has lodged complaint before the police authority and seeks police protection.

It appears from the report submitted by the State that pursuant to the complaints lodged by the petitioner, FIRs have been registered and charge sheets submitted upon conclusion of investigation. Since the house in question belongs to the 9th respondent, she is at liberty to decide whom she will allow in the said house. However, since the petitioner submits that all the personal documents and articles of his wife and himself are lying in the said house, the Inspector in charge, Noapara Police Station, being the 8th respondent herein, shall render necessary assistance to the petitioner so that he is able to collect his personal documents and articles, if any, of his wife and himself from the house without any resistance from the private respondents.

It is expected that the petitioner and the private respondents shall maintain peace at the time of recovery of the documents and articles by the petitioner. The police authority shall ensure that there is no breach of peace and tranquility.

The writ petition is accordingly disposed of.

There shall however, be no order as to costs.

Since no affidavit is invited, the allegations contained in the petition are deemed not to have been admitted.

Urgent certified website copy of this order, if applied for, be supplied to the parties upon compliance with all requisite formalities.
