

In the High Court at Calcutta

Special Civil Jurisdiction

Appellate Side

Contempt

09 22.4.2026
Sc Ct. No.38

Case No. : CPAN 1894 OF 2025
in
WPA 17762 OF 2025

In the matter of :

Samir Sarkar & Ors.
..Petitioners

-vs.-

Shri Basuki Charan,
Regional Provident Fund Commissioner -II
A/C Gr. 161, R.O. Park Street, Salt Lake
Building, Employees Provident Fund Organization

....alleged Contemnor

For the Petitioners:

Mr. Indrajit Biswas
Mr. Asit Kumar Ray
Mr. Rakesh Pandey.

....Advocates

This is a contempt proceeding arising from an order dated August 27, 2025.

Mr. Indrajit Biswas, learned Advocate appearing for the petitioners submits that, the direction of this Court has been complied with. He further submits that, the petitioners are not agreeable with the correctness of the reasoned order.

The correctness and worth of the reasoned order cannot be adjudicated in a contempt proceeding.

In view of the above, since nothing further survives in this proceeding, CPAN 1894 of 2025 stands dropped and closed.

The application CPAN 1894 of 2025 stands disposed of.

However, if the petitioners are aggrieved with the reasoned order, they shall be at liberty to take steps in accordance with law, if so advised.

(Aniruddha Roy, J.)