1. The petitioners challenge the recruitment rules relying on which the petitioners participated in the recruitment process, SLST 2025. It appears that the recruitment notification was published in the month of May, 2025. The petitioners applied relying on the said notification. The instant writ petition challenging the said notification has been filed in November, 2026.
2. There is no explanation provided in the writ petition as regards the delay in approaching the Court.
