In re : An application for anticipatory bail under Section 482 of the Bharatiya Nagarik Suraksha Sanhita, 2023 in connection with Harishchandrapur P.S. Case No. 780 of 2026 dated 25.06.2026 corresponding to G.R. No. 2177 of 2026, under Sections 137(2)/140(3) of the BNS.

In the matter of : Anjarul Hoque @ Anjarul .

.. petitioner

Mr. Asif Dewan,
Mr. Mehedi Masud,
.....for the Petitioner.

Mr. Ravi Ranjan Kumar,
.....for the State.

Mr. Amanul Islam,
Mr. Sourav Mukherjee,
... For the de facto complainant.

1. The petitioner, the State and the victim lady are represented by their respective learned advocates.
2. At the time of hearing, learned advocate appearing on behalf of the victim lady submits before this Court that she has got no objection in the event the prayer for anticipatory bail of the present accused/petitioner is granted.
3. Learned advocate appearing on behalf of the petitioner draws the attention of this Court to page nos. 8 & 9 of the instant anticipatory bail application. It is submitted that from the said two pages it would reveal that the marriage between the victim lady and the de facto complainant was dissolved on 22.08.2026 and thereafter the present accused/petitioner has married the victim lady and they are now residing together.

4. Learned advocate appearing on behalf of the State draws the attention of this Court to the statement of the victim girl as recorded under Section 183 BNSS.

5. On careful perusal of the entire materials as placed before this Court, this Court finds that admittedly there are some incriminating materials as against the present accused/petitioner in the Case Diary.

6. However, keeping in mind that the victim has got no objection with regard to the granting anticipatory bail to the accused/petitioner and also keeping in mind that from the materials placed before this Court that after divorce with the de facto compliant the victim lady is residing with the present accused/petitioner, this Court intends to take lenient approach.

7. It is thus ordered, in the event of arrest, the present accused/petitioner, namely, Anjarul Hoque @ Anjarul may find bail of Rs.500/- (Rupees five hundred) with one registered surety subject to the satisfaction of the Additional Chief Judicial Magistrate Chanchal, Malda and also on condition the present accused petitioner while on bail shall abide by the conditions as enumerated under Section 482(2) of the BNSS, 2023.

8. Accordingly, the prayer for anticipatory bail is allowed.

9. The application being CRM(A) 3887 of 2026 is disposed of.

10. Urgent photostat certified copies of this order, if applied for, be made available to the parties upon compliance with the requisite formalities.
