C.O. 4282 of 2025

Estate Sri Sri Ramchandraj
Represented by Sitala Prasad Jaiswal & Anr.
Vs.
Steel Authority of India Ltd.

Mr. Anirban Roy

...for the Petitioner.

1. By this application, the petitioner seeks expeditious disposal of Title Suit No.153 of 2015 along with the applications under Order 39 Rule 10 read with Section 151 of the Code of Civil Procedure, which are pending before the learned Judge, 6th Bench, City Civil Court at Calcutta.
2. Considering the submissions, the Court is of the view that the prayer of the petitioner is innocuous. Neither party stands to lose if a proceeding is disposed of expeditiously. In fact, such expeditious disposal shall enure to the benefit of the party. Hence, there is no requirement for service of prior notice upon the opposite party.
3. The revisional application is disposed of with a direction upon the learned trial court to dispose of the pending applications expeditiously, preferably within a period of four months from the next date fixed. Adequate opportunity shall be given to the parties to contest the same.
4. This court has neither expressed any opinion on the merits of the pending applications nor on the merits of the suit. The learned trial court shall proceed independently and in accordance with law.

5. A copy of the revisional application, along with a server copy of this order be served upon the opposite party and/or the learned advocate contesting the matter on behalf of the opposite party in the learned trial court.
6. The revisional application is accordingly disposed of.
7. There shall be no order as to costs.
8. Parties are to act on the server copy of this order.
