… For the petitioner

Ms. Tanusree Ghosh
… For the NBEMS/respondent no.2

Mr. Sunit Kumar Roy
… For National Medical Commission

1. Affidavit of service filed in Court today is taken on record.

2. The petitioner participated in NEET-PG, 2026 examination. Her allegation is that her request for providing compensatory time was not considered by the authority. The reply given by the authority for not granting such compensatory time mentions that since the timely query for compensatory time was sent in a non-designated email ID, accordingly, the same could not be accepted.

3. According to the petitioner, she forwarded the request in the proper email ID at the proper time.

There were several communications made by the authority from the selfsame email.

4. The petitioner has forwarded further request to consider her case for grant of compensatory time. Her representations dated 17th September, 2026 and 19th October, 2026 are alleged to be pending consideration.

5. The timeline for taking admission in NEET-PG, 2026 indicates that there is still some time left for conclusion of the admission process.

6. In view of the above, the instant writ petition stands disposed of by directing the Additional Director (Medical), National Board of Examinations in Medical Sciences to take into consideration the petitioner's last request dated 19th October, 2026 which was forwarded to the Chairman/ Secretary of the National Medical Commission in accordance with law at the earliest.

7. A soft copy of the said representation dated 19th October, 2026 along with all other supporting documents shall be forwarded to the Additional Director (Medical), National Board of Examinations in Medical Sciences at the time of communicating the order of the Court positively by tomorrow (27th November, 2026). Hard copy of all documents shall also be forwarded to the aforesaid respondent simultaneously.

8. A reasoned decision upon consideration of the petitioner's request shall be taken and communicated to the petitioner.

9. The writ petition along with the connected application, being CAN 1 of 2026, stand disposed of.

10. All parties shall act on the basis of a server copy of this order duly downloaded from the official website of this Court.

11. Certified server copy of this order, if applied for, be supplied to the parties on compliance of all requisite formalities.
