C.O. No. 4378 of 2025

Dipu Roy
Vs.
Sabitri Bala Mitra & Ors.

Mr. Sounak Bhattacharya
Mr. Sounak Mandal
Ms. Bipasha Bhattacharyya
.....for the petitioner.

The petitioner prays for expeditious disposal of the pending applications, filed in connection with Title Suit No. 132 of 2006, pending before the learned Civil Judge (Junior Division), 1st Court, Diamond Harbour.

The prayer of the petitioner is innocuous. Neither party stands to lose if a proceeding is disposed of expeditiously. In fact, such expeditious disposal shall enure to the benefit of the parties. Hence, there is no requirement for service of prior notice upon the opposite parties.

The revisional application is disposed of with a request to the learned court to dispose of the pending applications within four months from the next date fixed. Thereafter, on the basis of the fate of these applications, sincere endeavour shall be made to dispose of the suit preferably within one year. Adequate opportunity shall be granted to the parties to contest the same.

This court has not expressed any opinion on the merits of the applications and the suit. The learned court shall proceed independently and in accordance with law.

A copy of the revisional application along with a server copy of this order be served upon the opposite parties and/or the learned advocate contesting the matter on behalf of the opposite parties in the learned trial court, within a week.

The revisional application is accordingly disposed of. There shall be no order as to costs.

Parties are to act on the server copy of this order.
