C.O. No. 4401 of 2025

Indrajit Paul
Vs.
Gouri Sankar Shaw

Mr. Krishnendu Bera

.....for the petitioner.

The petitioner prays for expeditious disposal of the Ejectment Execution Case No.17 of 2023, along with all pending applications connected thereto, pending before the learned Civil Judge (Junior Division), 1st Court, Alipore.

It is submitted that the decree has been affirmed upto the High Court in the second appeal and the decree holder has been successful all through.

The prayer of the petitioner is innocuous. Neither party stands to lose if a proceeding is disposed of expeditiously. In fact, such expeditious disposal shall enure to the benefit of the parties. Hence, there is no requirement for service of prior notice upon the opposite party.

The revisional application is disposed of with a request to the learned court to dispose of the Execution Case along with all pending applications preferably within six months from the next date fixed. Adequate opportunity shall be granted to the parties to contest the proceeding.

This court has not expressed any opinion on the merits of the applications and the Execution Case. The learned court shall proceed independently and in accordance with law.

A copy of the revisional application along with a server copy of this order be served upon the opposite party and/or the learned advocate contesting the matter on behalf of the opposite party in the learned trial court, within a week.

The revisional application is accordingly disposed of. There shall be no order as to costs.

Parties are to act on the server copy of this order.
