In Re: - An application for anticipatory bail under Section 482 of the Bharatiya Suraksha Nagarik Sanhita in connection with Kaliachak Police Station Case No. 458 of 2025 dated 22.03.2025 under Sections 21 (C)/25/27A/29 of the NDPS Act.

And

In the matter of: Mabud Sekh @ Mabud Sk

.... Petitioner.

Md. Wasim Akram
Ms. Sabrina Parveen

...for the petitioner

Mr. Rudradipta Nandy, Ld. APP
Mr. Amanul Islam

..for the State

Report filed on behalf of the State is taken on record.

Learned counsel appearing on behalf of the petitioner submits that other than the statements of a co-accused, there is no other material available against the present petitioner.

Learned counsel appearing on behalf of the State opposes the prayer for anticipatory bail. However, he submits that there is no money trail or criminal antecedent or phone call conversation present to implicate the present petitioner.

In view of the above, the petitioner has been able to rebut the restriction contained in Section 37 of the NDPS Act and considering the materials available in the case diary and the fact that charge sheet has been submitted, I am inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

Accordingly, the application for anticipatory bail of the petitioner is allowed.

In the event of arrest, the petitioner shall be released on bail upon furnishing a bond of Rs.10,000/- with two sureties of like amount each, one of whom must be local, to the satisfaction of the Arresting Officer and also be subject to the conditions as laid down under Section 438(2) of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973 corresponding to Section 482(2) of the BNSS, 2023 and on further conditions that the petitioner shall surrender before the learned jurisdictional Court and pray for bail within four weeks from this date and shall attend the jurisdictional court regularly. The petitioner shall not threaten or intimidate the witnesses.

The application for anticipatory bail is, thus, disposed of.

The presence of the Investigating Officer is noted and is dispensed with.
