C.O. No. 4432 of 2025

Pushpendu Halder
Vs.
Panchu Nayak & Anr.

Mr. Md. Zeeshanuz Zaman

.....for the petitioner.

The petitioner prays for expeditious disposal of an application under Order 6 Rule 17 of the Code of Civil Procedure, filed in connection with Title Suit No. 1369 of 2021, pending before the learned Civil Judge (Junior Division), 3rd Additional Court, Alipore.

The prayer of the petitioner is innocuous. Neither party stands to lose if a proceeding is disposed of expeditiously. In fact, such expeditious disposal shall enure to the benefit of the parties. Hence, there is no requirement for service of prior notice upon the opposite parties.

The revisional application is disposed of with a request to the learned court to dispose of the pending application within two months from the next date fixed. Thereafter, on the basis of the outcome of the said application, sincere endeavour shall be made to dispose of the suit preferably within one year. Adequate opportunity shall be granted to the parties to contest the same.

This court has not expressed any opinion on the merits of the application and the suit. The learned court shall proceed independently and in accordance with law.

A copy of the revisional application along with a server copy of this order be served upon the opposite parties and/or the learned advocate contesting the matter on behalf of the opposite parties in the learned trial court, within a week.

The revisional application is accordingly disposed of. There shall be no order as to costs.

Parties are to act on the server copy of this order.
