C.O. No. 4433 of 2025

Gautam Kumar Nandi
Vs.
Arambagh Pratidwandi Club & Anr.

Mr. Rajkrishna Mondal
.....for the petitioner.

The petitioner prays for expeditious disposal of an application for injunction along with other interlocutory applications, filed in connection with Title Suit No. 241 of 2024, pending before the learned Civil Judge (Junior Division), 2nd Court, Arambagh, Hooghly.

The prayer of the petitioner is innocuous. Neither party stands to lose if a proceeding is disposed of expeditiously. In fact, such expeditious disposal shall enure to the benefit of the parties. Hence, there is no requirement for service of prior notice upon the opposite parties.

The revisional application is disposed of with a request to the learned court to dispose of the pending applications within six months from the next date fixed, as per seriality they deserve. Adequate opportunity shall be granted to the parties to contest the same.

This court has not expressed any opinion on the merits of the applications. The learned court shall proceed independently and in accordance with law.

A copy of the revisional application along with a server copy of this order be served upon the opposite parties and/or the learned advocate contesting the matter on behalf of the opposite parties in the learned trial court, within a week.

The revisional application is accordingly disposed of. There shall be no order as to costs.

Parties are to act on the server copy of this order.
