C.O. 4548 of 2025

Chandrika Prasad Jaiswal
Vs.
Snehalata Jiaswal & Anr.

Mr. Satyam Mukherjee
Mr. Purnendu Shekhar Ghosh
Mr. Saibal Rakshit

.....for the petitioner.

The petitioner prays for expeditious disposal of pending applications filed in connection with Title Suit No. 991 of 2022, pending before the learned Civil Judge (Senior Division), 1st Court, Barasat.

The prayer of the petitioner is innocuous. Neither party stands to lose if a proceeding is disposed of expeditiously. In fact, such expeditious disposal shall enure to the benefit of the parties. Hence, there is no requirement for service of prior notice upon the opposite parties.

The revisional application is disposed of with a request to the learned court to dispose of all pending applications within four months from the next date fixed, as per the seriality they deserve. Adequate opportunity shall be granted to the parties to contest the same.

This court has not expressed any opinion on the merits of the applications. The learned court shall proceed independently and in accordance with law.

A copy of the revisional application along with a server copy of this order be served upon the opposite parties and/or the learned advocate contesting the matter on behalf of the opposite parties in the learned trial court, within a week.

The revisional application is accordingly disposed of. There shall be no order as to costs.

Parties are to act on the server copy of this order.
