C.O. 4549 of 2025

Saikat Bhattacharya
Vs.
Mousumi Bhattacharya

Mr. Saptarshi Bhattacharjee
Ms. Divya Baid

.....for the petitioner.

The petitioner/husband prays for expeditious disposal of Matrimonial Suit No. 941 of 2018, which is pending before the learned Additional District Judge, 3rd Court at Alipore.

The prayer of the petitioner is innocuous. Neither party stands to lose if a proceeding is disposed of expeditiously. In fact, such expeditious disposal shall enure to the benefit of the parties. Hence, there is no requirement for service of prior notice upon the opposite party.

The revisional application is disposed of with a request upon the learned court to make a sincere endeavour to dispose of the suit expeditiously, preferably within one year from the next date fixed, provided the husband continues to pay the maintenance pendente lite, as has been directed by the competent court. Adequate opportunity shall be granted to the parties to contest the same.

If the payment is not made or in case of any single default, the suit shall remain stayed.

This court has not expressed any opinion on the merits of the suit. The learned court shall proceed independently and in accordance with law.

A copy of the revisional application along with a server copy of this order be served upon the opposite party and/or the learned advocate contesting the matter on behalf of the opposite party in the learned court below, within a week.

The revisional application is accordingly disposed of. There shall be no order as to costs.

Parties are to act on the server copy of this order.
