... for the State

Heard learned counsels for the parties.

Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that no narcotic substance was recovered from the petitioner and his name has transpired from the statement of the co accused.

Learned counsel for the State opposes the prayer.

I have considered the material on record.

In view of the fact that no narcotic substance was recovered from the petitioner and his name has transpired from the statement of co accused, this Court is inclined to hold that the petitioner has been able to rebut the statutory restriction under Section 37 of the NDPS Act and is entitled to anticipatory bail.

Accordingly, in the event of arrest, the petitioner Alimul Ali be released on bail on furnishing bond of Rs.20,000/-

(Rupees Twenty Thousand only), with two sureties of like amount each, to the satisfaction of the arresting officer and subject to provision under Section 482(2) of the Bharatiya Nagarik Suraksha Sanhita, 2023 and subject to further condition that he shall meet the investigating officer once a week till submission of charge sheet.

The petitioner shall appear before the jurisdictional Court and pray for regular bail within two weeks from date.

The application being CRM (A) 57 of 2026 is disposed of.

Case Diary be returned.

Urgent certified website copy of this order, if applied for, be supplied to the parties upon compliance with all requisite formalities.
