And

In the matter of : Rahul Kumar @ Rahul Kumar Singh

.....Petitioner.

Mr. Sayantan Bhowmik
.....for the Petitioner.

Mr. Avrojyoti Das, Ld. A.P.P.
Mr. Urgen Lama,
Mr. Rajdeep Das

.....for the State.

1. The learned advocates for the petitioner and the State are present in Court.

2. The learned advocate for the petitioner submitted that considering the period of detention and also considering the fact that the investigation is completed, the instant application for bail may be considered favorably.

3. The prayer for bail is vehemently opposed by the learned Advocate for the State, submitting that from the materials of the case diary, it would reveal that on account of stab injury as inflicted by the present accused petitioner on the person of the victim, the victim suffered serious injuries which would be evident from the injury report as well as the photographs available in the case diary.

4. On careful perusal of the entire materials as placed before this Court and after hearing the learned Advocates for the contending parties, it appears that, admittedly, there are sufficient incriminating materials against the present accused petitioner.

5. However, considering the fact that the injuries of the victim are not on the vital parts of the body, and keeping in mind that the present accused petitioner has been languishing in judicial custody for a considerable length of time, and also keeping in mind that the investigation has already been completed, this Court is inclined to take a lenient approach.

6. It is thus ordered that the present accused petitioner may find bail of Rs.10,000/- with two registered sureties of Rs. 5,000/- each, subject to the satisfaction of the learned Chief Judicial Magistrate, Jalpaiguri, on condition that the present accused petitioner shall not enter within a 2-kilometer radius of the residence of de facto complainant and the victim and the present accused petitioner shall not commit any threat or intimidation to any of the charge-sheeted witnesses and the present accused petitioner shall appear before the learned Trial Court on each and every date of substantive hearing, failing which the learned Trial Court shall be at liberty to cancel the bail as granted by this Court.

7. Accordingly, CRM (M) 403 of 2026 is allowed and disposed of.

8. All parties shall act in terms of server copy of the order downloaded from the official website of this Court.

9. Urgent photostat certified copy of this order, if applied for, be supplied to the parties upon compliance with all requisite formalities.
