Report submitted by the State is taken on record.

None appears for the victim despite service.

The petitioner submits that the petitioner is languishing in custody with her 4 month old child for about six months. The principal accused has been granted bail by this Court. The said prayer was not objected to by the victim who in fact conceded to the same. The petitioner prays for bail.

Learned counsel for the State opposes the prayer.

I have considered the material on record.

The principal accused who appears to have allegedly ravished the victim has been granted bail by a co ordinate

Bench of this Court. The allegation against the petitioner is that she took the victim to the hotel where she was ravished by the principal accused. Charge sheet has been submitted. Further detention of the petitioner is not required for the purpose of custodial interrogation and she may be released on bail.

Accordingly prayer for bail of the petitioner is allowed.

In the event the petitioner fails to comply with any of the conditions as mentioned above without justifiable cause, the learned trial Court shall be at liberty to cancel her bail in accordance with law without further reference to this Court.
