The Court: Learned Counsel for the parties state that the matter has been amicably settled between the parties and the respondent has cleared outstanding debts.

In view of the said settlement, the learned Counsel for the petitioner states that the present petition has become infructuous and the same can be disposed of.

Accordingly, the present application is disposed of in terms of the settlement arrived at between the parties.

The respondent is present before this Court in terms of the warrant of arrest issued against him. The warrant of arrest is discharged.

All interim orders stand vacated.
