CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE SANJAY PARIHAR, JUDGE

ORDER (ORAL)

01. Heard learned counsel for the parties.

02. It is fairly conceded by the parties that, in respect of FIR No. 65/2026 of Police Station Janipur, Jammu, the charge-sheet has already been filed. Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that, pursuant to the order dated 21.07.2026 passed by this Court, the petitioner has been granted bail in anticipation of arrest and that all the conditions have been duly complied with by him, inasmuch as, after the filing of the charge-sheet, his presence is regulated under the orders of the trail court.

03. The learned counsel for the respondent No. 2 argued that, on account of the incident, the complainant had suffered injuries and he still to recover from the same. He further submits that one of the close relatives of the accused is threatening the complainant.

04. Be that as it may, since the trial court is seized of the matter, in that background, whatever apprehension the complainant/respondent No. 2 has, he can bring the same to the notice of the trial court, enabling the latter to deal with such apprehension.

05. On the other hand, the petitioner, after having been admitted to bail in anticipation of arrest, is also supposed to comply with the directions passed by this Court on 21.07.2026.

06. In view of the aforesaid circumstances, having regard to the nature of accusation and with the filing of the charge-sheet, nothing survives further here.

07. The present petition is, accordingly, disposed of by making the interim direction dated 21.07.2026 absolute, leaving the trail court to proceed with the charge-sheet in accordance with law and regulate the appearance of the petitioner in accordance therewith.

08. Disposed of, along with connected application(s).

09. A copy of this order shall be conveyed to the trial court.
