ORDER
25.11.2026

CrlM No. 2295/2026

01. This is an application seeking permission of this Court to place on record extended bail orders passed by the trail court from time to time.

02. The application for the reasons stated therein is allowed. The bail extension orders appended with the application are taken on record.

03. Application stands disposed of.

CrlM(574/2026)

01. The appeal sought to be filed against an order dated 12.08.2025 read with orders dated 30.12.2025, 27.01.2026, 18.02.2026 and 14.03.2026 is delayed by 162 days.

02. The orders which have been challenged in the appeal have already outlived their lives.

03. The latest order has been passed by the trial court on 02.11.2026 extending the interim bail granted to the respondent on medical ground till 25.11.2026. This order is not specifically challenged in the appeal.

04. Be that as it may, the application for the reasons stated therein is allowed and the delay in filing the appeal is condoned.

05. Application stands disposed of.

CrlA(D) 26/2026

01. Heard learned counsel appearing for the parties and perused the material on record, we are of the considered opinion that the Trial court has granted interim bail to the respondent purely on medical grounds. It has been pointed out that the accused is suffering from Chronic Kidney Disease –End Stage Renal Disease with Uremic symptoms requiring continued medical attention and management.

02. It is on the basis of medical report submitted by the medical Board from time to time a decision has been taken by the trial court to extend the bail upto 25.11.2026. The last extension in the bail is expiring today.

03. In that view of the matter, we dispose of this appeal by providing that the learned Trial court shall pass appropriate orders after examining the latest medical status of the respondent. Till the matter is considered for further extension beyond 25.11.2026 by the Trail Court and appropriate orders are passed, the respondent shall not be forced to surrender.

04. Disposed of.
