CORAM: HON'BLE THE CHIEF JUSTICE
HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE MANOJ PRASAD

For the Petitioners :Ms Chaitali Chatterjee Sinha, Advocate
For the Respondents :Mr Ashutosh Anand, AAG-III

02/Dated: 28.10.2026

I.A. No.7811 of 2026

1. Heard Ms Chaitali Chatterjee Sinha, for the petitioners and Mr Ashutosh Anand, learned AAG-III, for the respondents.

2. This I.A. seeks condonation of delay of 128 days in filing accompanying C.M.P.

3. We have perused the reasons set out in the I.A. We have satisfied that sufficient cause has been shown.

4. Accordingly, the delay is condoned and I.A. No. 7811 of 2026 is disposed of.

C.M.P No. 604 of 2026

5. This C.M.P. seeks restoration of L.P.A. (Filing) No. 10560 of 2024.

6. Again, we have perused the averments made in the C.M.P. We are satisfied that the L.P.A. could not be attended to for genuine reasons. Ultimately, the original appellant expired it is now claimed that the business of the original appellant is being taken over by M/s Chirkunda Rolling Mills, partnership firm comprising the son and the brother of the deceased original appellant.

7. Considering the above circumstances, we allow C.M.P. No. 604 of 2026, recall our order dismissing L.P.A (Filing) No.10560 of 2024 for non-prosecution and restore L.P.A. (Filing) No.10560 of 2024.

8. In allowing this C.M.P., we have also considered the assurance of Ms Sinha that office objections will be cleared within six weeks from today without fail.

9. If such office objections are not cleared within six weeks from today, then, L.P.A. (Filing) No.10560 of 2024 shall again stand dismissed for non-prosecution without further reference to this Court.

10. If the office objections are cleared, then, place the L.P.A. “For Orders” in due course.
