For the Respondents : Mr. Prashant Pallav, ASGI
: Mr. Bajrang Kumar, AC to ASGI
: Mr. Aryan Anurag, AC to ASGI

04/ Dated: 15.09.2026

1. Heard learned counsel for the parties.

2. The instant writ application has been preferred by the petitioner praying therein for the following reliefs:

> "i. For issuance of an appropriate writ(s), order(s), direction(s), particularly a writ of mandamus commanding upon the Respondents to pass final order on the Show Cause notice dated 17/07/2025 and reply thereto dated 26/07/2025."

3. Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the petitioner is fully entitled for the prayer made in the instant writ application; however, the grievance of the petitioner has not been redressed.

4. Learned counsel for the respondents fairly submits that since no counter affidavit has been filed; as such the petitioner may be directed to approach the concerned respondent by filing a fresh representation, who shall look into the matter so that the grievance of the petitioner can be redressed.

5. Having regard to the aforesaid submissions and without going into the merits of the case, the instant writ application is hereby disposed of by directing the respondent No. 2 to look into the grievance of the petitioner by treating this writ application as representation and take a decision in the matter in accordance with law and applicable rules and regulations by passing a reasoned and speaking order within a period of 8 weeks from the date of receipt of copy of this order and communicate the same to the petitioner. The petitioner may serve a copy of this writ application along with the relevant documents to the concerned respondent for convenience.

6. It goes without saying that if the decision is taken in favour of the petitioner, necessary consequential order be passed within a further period of 2 weeks.

7. Pending I.A., if any, also stands closed.
