ORDER

Order No.

02. 1. This matter is taken up through Hybrid Arrangement (Virtual/ Physical Mode).

2. Heard learned counsel for the Petitioner and learned counsel for the State. Perused the materials placed before this Court.

3. The present bail application under Section 483 of B.N.S.S., 2023 has been filed by the Petitioner for regular bail in connection with G.R. Case No.276 of 2026 arising out of Ranpur P.S. Case No. 174 of 2026 pending in the Court of learned J.M.F.C., Ranpur for the alleged commission of offence punishable under Sections l26(2)/296/115(2)/109(l)/118(2) of BNS.

4. It is submitted by the learned counsel for the Petitioner that the Petitioner is in custody since 06.06.2025. The learned counsel for the Petitioner submitted that in the meantime, the investigation has been concluded and the final charge-sheet has already been filed. He further contended that the Petitioner does not have any criminal antecedent and he belongs to the locality, therefore, there is no chance of absconding.

5. Further referring to the allegations made in the F.I.R., the learned counsel for the Petitioner contended that the injured had sustained two injuries, one of which was simple in nature and the other grievous. So far as the grievous injury is concerned, the learned counsel submitted that the same was not sustained on any vital part of the body. Accordingly, it was contended that the offence under Section 109 of the BNS would not be attracted in the facts and circumstances of the present case. In view of the above, the learned counsel for the Petitioner prayed for release of the Petitioner on bail on such terms and conditions as this Court may deem fit and proper.

6. Learned Additional Standing Counsel appearing for the State-Opposite Party, on the other hand, opposed the release of the Petitioner on bail on the ground of gravity and seriousness of the allegation. He further contended that the injuries sustained by the injured is grievous in nature. In the event the Petitioner is released on bail, there is every likelihood that he might abscond, which may cause delay in the conclusion of trial. Therefore, he submitted that the prayer for bail of the Petitioner be rejected at this juncture.

7. Having heard the learned counsels appearing for the respective parties and on a careful examination of the surrounding facts and circumstances of the present case, keeping the view the period of detention of the Petitioner in jail custody, the charge-sheet has already been filed along with the Petitioner belongs to the locality, this Court is inclined to release the Petitioner on bail subject to imposition of stringent conditions.

8. Hence, it is directed that the Petitioner be released on bail in the aforesaid case on furnishing bail bond of Rs.40,000/-(Rupees forty Thousand) with two local solvent sureties each for the like amount to the satisfaction of the Court in seisin over the matter.

9. It is further directed that the bail granted to the Petitioner shall be subject to the verification of injury as well as criminal antecedents. In the event, it is found that the injured condition of injury is critical and the Petitioner is having any similar criminal antecedents, then this order shall stand automatically revoked.

10. The release of the Petitioner shall also be subject to such other terms and conditions as is deemed just and proper by the court in seisin over the matter. Violation of any of the terms and conditions shall entail cancellation of bail.

11. The BLAPL is, accordingly, disposed of.

Urgent certified copy of this order be granted as per rules.
