CORAM:
THE HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE ADITYA KUMAR MOHAPATRA

ORDER
28.10.2026

Order No.

04. 1. This matter is taken up through Hybrid mode.

2. Heard learned counsel for the Petitioner as well as learned counsel for the State. Perused the application as well as documents annexed thereto.

3. The present bail application under Section 483 of BNSS, has been filed by the Petitioner for regular bail relating to Lalbag P.S. Case No.110 of 2026, corresponding to G.R. Case No.296 of 2026, pending before the learned S.D.J.M.(S), Cuttack, for alleged commission of offence punishable under Sections 316(4), 306, 61(2), 111, 3(5) of BNS.

4. It is submitted by the learned counsel for the Petitioner that the Petitioner is in custody since 20.05.2026. He further submitted that in the meantime the investigation has been concluded and the final charge-sheet has been filed. He further submitted that some of the co-accused persons have already been enlarged on bail in the meantime. Further, referring to the allegation made in the FIR, learned counsel for the Petitioner contended that all the offences are triable by Magistrate. He further contended that although the Petitioner does not belong to the State of Odisha, however, he is ready and willing to abide by any terms and conditions deems fit by this Court. He further submitted that although the Petitioner is having one criminal antecedent, however, he is ready and willing to abide by any terms and conditions as this Court deems fit and proper in the facts and circumstances of the case.

5. Learned counsel for the State, on the other hand, opposed the bail application of the Petitioner on the ground of gravity and seriousness of the allegation. He further contended that the Petitioner is having one criminal antecedent. In the event he is released on bail, he might abscond from justice. In such view of the matter, he submitted that the bail application of the Petitioner be rejected at this juncture.

6. Having heard the learned counsels appearing for the respective parties and on a careful examination of the surrounding facts and circumstances of the present case, further keeping in view the period of detention of the Petitioner in jail custody, and the fact that the offences are triable by Magistrate, and the fact that the charge-sheet has been filed in the meantime, this Court is inclined to release the Petitioner on bail subject to the Petitioner furnishing bail bond of Rs.50,000/- (Rupees Fifty Thousand) with two solvent sureties each for the like amount to the satisfaction of the learned court in seisin over the matter. The release of the Petitioner shall also be subject to such other terms and conditions as is deemed just and proper by the court in seisin over the matter. Violation of any of the terms and conditions shall entail cancellation of bail.

7. It is further directed that the bail granted to the Petitioner be subject to the condition that the court below shall verify the criminal antecedent of the Petitioner. In the event the Petitioner is having more than one criminal antecedent, then this bail order shall automatically stand revoked.

8. Accordingly, the BLAPL stands disposed of.

Issue urgent certified copy as per Rules.
