ORDER

Order No.

02. 1. This matter is taken up through Hybrid Arrangement (Virtual /Physical Mode).

2. Heard learned counsel appearing for the Petitioner and learned Additional Standing Counsel appearing for the State-Opposite Party. Perused the bail application as well as the documents annexed thereto.

3. The present bail application under Section 483 of B.N.S.S., 2023 has been filed by the Petitioner for regular bail in connection with T.R. Case No.06 of 2026, arising out of Khordha Industrial P.S. Case No.11 of 2026, pending in the court of learned 1st Additional Sessions Judge-cum-Spl. Judge, under N.D.P.S. Act, Khordha, for alleged commission of offences punishable under Sections 20(b)(ii)(C)/29 of the N.D.P.S. Act, 1985.

4. It is submitted by the learned counsel for the Petitioner that the Petitioner is languishing in jail custody since 13.01.2026. He further submitted that in the meantime investigation has been concluded and final charge sheet has been filed. He further submitted that the Petitioner does not have any criminal antecedent and that he belongs to the locality, therefore, there is no chance of his absconding. Learned counsel for the Petitioner further contended that the Petitioner, who happens to be a driver, has been falsely implicated in the present case, as a result of which, the Petitioner as well as his family has been subjected to harassment. Further, referring to the allegation made in the F.I.R., learned counsel for the Petitioner contended that a total quantity of 40 Kgs. of contraband Ganja was recovered from the vehicle of the present Petitioner. Learned counsel for the Petitioner, at this juncture, seriously disputed the recovery of the contraband Ganja from the exclusive and conscious possession of the present Petitioner. He further contended that taking into consideration the aforesaid fact, the bar under Section 37 of the N.D.P.S. Act would be attracted to the facts of the Petitioner's case. On such grounds, learned counsel for the Petitioner contended that the Petitioner be enlarged on bail on any terms and conditions as would be deemed just and proper by this Court.

5. Learned counsel for the State, on the other hand, opposed the release of the Petitioner on bail on the ground of gravity and seriousness of the allegation. He further contended that in the event the Petitioner is released on bail, there is every possibility that he might abscond from justice which would eventually cause delay in conclusion of the trial. He further submitted that the cases of illegal transportation of contraband Ganja are on rise in State of Odisha now-a-days. Therefore, no leniency should be shown to the accused persons who are involved in such type of offence. On such grounds, it is submitted that the prayer for bail of the Petitioner be rejected at this juncture.

6. Having regard to the submissions made by the learned counsels appearing for the respective parties, further taking note of the fact that investigation has been concluded and final charge sheet has been filed, and that the trial has not commenced in the meantime, and that the Petitioner is languishing in custody since 13.01.2026 and is having no similar criminal antecedent, this Court is inclined to release the Petitioner on bail.

7. Hence, it is directed that the Petitioner be released on bail in the aforesaid case on furnishing bail bond of Rs.50,000/- (Rupees fifty thousand) with two local solvent sureties each for the like amount to the satisfaction of the Court in seisin over the matter. The release of the Petitioner shall also be subject to such other terms and conditions as would be fixed by the court in seisin over the matter. Violation of any of the terms and conditions shall entail cancellation of bail.

8. It is further directed that the bail granted to the Petitioner shall be subject to the condition that the court below shall verify whether the Petitioner is having any criminal antecedent of similar nature. In the event it is found that the Petitioner is having any criminal antecedent of similar nature, then this bail order shall automatically stand revoked.

9. The BLAPL is, accordingly, disposed of.

Issue urgent certified copy of this order as per Rules.
