ORDER
29.10.2026

Order No.

02. 1. This matter is taken up through hybrid mode.

2. Heard learned counsel appearing for the Petitioners and learned Additional Standing Counsel appearing for the State-Opposite Party. Perused the materials placed before this Court.

3. The present bail application under Section 483 of the B.N.S.S. has been filed by the Petitioners for regular bail in connection with G.R. Case No.832 of 2026 arising out of Banarpal. PS Case No.408 of 2026 pending in the Court of learned J.M.F.C., Banarpal.

4. It is submitted by the learned counsel for the Petitioners that the Petitioners are in custody since 14.07.2026. He further submitted that in the meantime investigation has been concluded, the final charge sheet has already been filed and although the Petitioners are having some criminal antecedents, they hereby undertake to abide by any terms and conditions that would be imposed by this Court in the event they are released on bail. He further submitted that the informant-injured also several criminal antecedents. Further referring to the allegations made in the F.I.R., learned counsel for the petitioners submitted that as a result of fight between two groups informant has sustained certain injuries. He further submitted that although one of the injuries is a grievous injury, however the same is not in the vital part of the body. He further submitted that in the meantime the informant has been discharged from the hospital and his condition is satisfactory. In view of the aforesaid factual background, learned counsel for the petitioners prays that the petitioners be released on bail on such stringent terms and conditions as this Court may deem fit and proper.

5. Learned Additional Standing Counsel on the other hand opposed the bail application of the Petitioners primarily on the ground that in the event the Petitioners are released on bail, they might indulge in similar criminal offences. As such, the learned counsel for the State submitted that the bail application of the Petitioners be rejected at this juncture.

6. Having heard the learned counsel for the respective parties and on a careful examination of the report received from the I.I.C. of the concerned police station with regard to the health condition of the injured, which is stated to be satisfactory and stable, and upon taking into consideration the period of custodial detention of the petitioners as well as materials on record, this Court is inclined to release the Petitioners on bail subject to imposition of stringent conditions.

7. Hence, it is directed that the Petitioners be released on bail in the aforesaid case on furnishing a bail bond of Rs.45,000/- (Rupees Forty-Five thousand) with two solvent sureties each for the like amount to the satisfaction of the learned court in seisin over the matter.

8. It is open for the Court in seisin over the matter to impose any other conditions as may be deemed just and proper.

Violation of any of the conditions shall entail cancellation of the bail application.

9. The BLAPL is, accordingly, disposed of.
