ORDER
29.10.2026

Order No.

03. 1. This matter is taken up through hybrid mode.

2. Heard learned counsel appearing for the Petitioners and learned Additional Standing Counsel appearing for the State-Opposite Party. Perused the materials placed before this Court.

3. The present bail application under Section 483 of the B.N.S.S. has been filed by the Petitioners for regular bail in connection with Bhawanipatna Sadar P.S. Case No.314 of 2026 corresponding to C.T. Case No.703 of 2026 pending in the Court of learned S.D.J.M., Bhawanipatna.

4. It is submitted by the learned counsel for the Petitioners that the Petitioners are in custody since 23.07.2026. He further submitted that in the meantime investigation has been concluded, the final charge sheet has already been filed and although the Petitioners are having some criminal antecedents, they hereby undertake to abide by any terms and conditions that would be imposed by this Court in the event they are released on bail. He further submits that the Petitioners are resident of the locality and, therefore, there is no likelihood of their absconding. Further referring to the allegations made in the F.I.R., learned counsel for the petitioners submitted that they have been falsely implicated in the present case. He further submitted that the principal allegation against the petitioners is that they were preparing to commit dacoity. Learned counsel for the petitioners also contended that the petitioners have been falsely implicated by the local police with the intention of keeping them in judicial custody. In view of the aforesaid factual background, learned counsel for the petitioners prays that the petitioners be released on bail on such stringent terms and conditions as this Court may deem fit and proper.

5. Learned Additional Standing Counsel on the other hand opposed the bail application of the Petitioners primarily on the ground that in the event the Petitioners are released on bail, they might indulge in similar criminal offences. As such, the learned counsel for the State submitted that the bail application of the Petitioners be rejected at this juncture.

6. Having heard the learned counsel for the respective parties and on careful consideration of the surrounding facts as well as materials on record, this Court is inclined to release the Petitioners on bail subject to imposition of stringent conditions.

7. Hence, it is directed that the Petitioners be released on bail in the aforesaid case on furnishing a bail bond of Rs.45,000/- (Rupees Forty-Five thousand) with two solvent sureties each for the like amount to the satisfaction of the learned court in seisin over the matter.

8. Release of the petitioners shall be subject to the following conditions:-

I. shall not indulge in similar type of offences while on bail;

II. shall appear before the local Police Station once in a fortnight for a period of three months, preferably on 'Sunday' in between 10.00 A.M. to 1 P.M, thereafter, once in a month for a period of another three month.

Violation of any of the conditions shall entail cancellation of the bail application.

9. Additionally, the bail granted to the Petitioners is subject to the petitioners depositing a cash security of Rs.4,000/- (Rupees Four Thousands) each before the learned Court in seisin over the matter, which shall be kept in any Nationalized Bank in interest bearing account, initially for a period of one year, which will be renewable from time to time till conclusion of trial and the same shall abide by the final outcome of the trial.

10. The BLAPL is, accordingly, disposed of.
