CORAM:
THE HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE ADITYA KUMAR MOHAPATRA

ORDER
29.10.2026

Order No.

01. 1. This matter is taken up through Hybrid Mode.

2. Heard learned counsel appearing for the Petitioners and learned Additional Standing Counsel appearing for the State-Opposite Party. Perused the materials placed before this Court.

3. The present bail application under Section 483 of B.N.S.S. has been filed by the Petitioners for regular bail in connection with T.R. Case No.74 of 2024, arising out of Muniguda PS Case No.94 of 2024, pending in the Court of learned Additional Session Judge-cum-Special Judge, At-Gunupur, Dist-Rayagada, for alleged commission of offence punishable under Sections 20(b)(ii)C, 29 of the N.D.P.S. Act.

4. It is submitted by the learned counsel for the Petitioners that the Petitioners were earlier released on bail on 20.06.2024 on being arrested on 22.04.2024. He further submitted that after they are released on bail, the Petitioners were appearing before the learned trial court. However, due to a communication gap with their conducting counsel, they could not appear. Therefore, NBW was issued against the present Petitioners. In execution of such NBW, the Petitioners have again been taken into custody on 10.07.2026 and since that date the Petitioners have been languishing in jail custody. He further submitted that there is no possibility of the trial being commenced and concluded in the near future. Learned counsel for the Petitioners further assured this Court that the Petitioners are ready and willing to abide by any stringent terms and conditions in the event the Petitioners are given another opportunity.

5. Learned Additional Government Advocate appearing for the State-Opposite Party, on the other hand, opposed the release of the Petitioners on bail on the ground that the Petitioners have already been made a default and that the further default in future cannot be ruled out. On such ground, learned counsel for the State prayed for rejection of the bail application of the Petitioners at this juncture.

6. Having heard the learned counsels appearing for the respective parties and on a careful examination of the surrounding facts and circumstances of the present case and further keeping the view the Petitioners earlier released on bail, this Court is inclined to release the Petitioners on bail subject to imposition of stringent conditions.

7. Hence, it is directed that each of the Petitioner be released on bail in the aforesaid case on furnishing bail bond of Rs.50,000/- (Rupees Fifty thousand) each with two solvent sureties each for the like amount to the satisfaction of the Court in seisin over the matter.

8. It is open for the Court in seisin over the matter to impose any other conditions as may be deemed just and proper. Violation of any of the conditions shall entail cancellation of the bail application.

9. The BLAPL is, accordingly, disposed of.
