Learned counsel for the Petitioner further contended that although the Petitioner is having some similar criminal antecedents, however he is ready and willing to abide by any stringent terms and conditions that will be imposed by this Court in the event, he is released on bail. He further submitted that he belongs to locality, therefore there is no chance of abscond.

Learned Additional Standing Counsel on the other hand opposed the bail application of the Petitioner on the ground that the Petitioner is released on bail there is a possibility he might indulge in similar criminal offences. Accordingly, it was prayed that the bail application of the Petitioner be rejected at this juncture.

Having heard learned counsel for the respective parties and on careful consideration of the surrounding facts as well as materials on record, this Court is inclined to release the Petitioner on bail on furnishing a bail bond of Rs.40,000/- (Rupees Forty Thousand) with two local solvent sureties each for the like amount to the satisfaction of the learned court in seisin over the matter. It is open for the Court in seisin over the matter to impose any other conditions as may be deemed just and proper. Violation of any of the terms and conditions shall entail cancellation of bail.
