ORDER

Order No.

01. 1. This matter is taken up through Hybrid Mode.

2. Heard learned counsel appearing for the Petitioners and learned Additional Standing Counsel appearing for the State-Opposite Party. Perused the bail application as well as the documents annexed thereto.

3. The present bail application under Section 483 of B.N.S.S., 2023 has been filed by the Petitioners for regular bail in connection with Special G.R. Case No.139 of 2025, arising out of Chitrakonda P.S. Case No.213 of 2025, pending in the court of learned Sessions Judge-cum-Special Judge, Malkangiri, for alleged commission of offence punishable under Section 20(b)(ii)(C)/25/29 of the N.D.P.S. Act, 1985.

4. It is submitted by the learned counsel for the Petitioners that the Petitioners are languishing in jail custody since 27.02.2026. He further submitted that in the meantime investigation has been concluded and charge sheet has been filed. Learned counsel for the Petitioners further contended that after the Petitioners, who were arrested in connection with this case, they have been taken on remain in connection with similar case. He further submitted that the Petitioners belong to the locality, therefore, there is no chance of their absconding. Further, referring to the allegation made in the FIR, learned counsel for the Petitioners contended that as per the prosecution allegation, a total quantity of 60 Kgs. of liquid Ganja was recovered from two persons. He further submitted that the Petitioners have been falsely implicated in the present case. Learned counsel for the Petitioners, at this juncture, seriously disputed the recovery of the contraband liquid Ganja from the exclusive and conscious possession of the present Petitioners. He further contended that taking into consideration the aforesaid fact, the bar under Section 37 of the N.D.P.S. Act would be attracted to the facts of the Petitioners' case. He further submitted that taking into consideration the fact that the Petitioners have been languishing in custody for more than 8 months and there is no possibility of the trial being commenced in the near future and the charge sheet has been filed in the meantime, the Petitioners be enlarged on bail on any terms and conditions as would be deemed just and proper by this Court.

5. Learned counsel for the State, on the other hand, opposed the release of the Petitioners on bail on the ground of gravity and seriousness of the allegation. He further contended that in the event the Petitioners are released on bail, there is every possibility that they might abscond from justice which would eventually cause delay in conclusion of the trial. He further submitted that the cases of illegal transportation of contraband Ganja are on rise in State of Odisha now-a-days. Therefore, no leniency should be shown to the accused persons who are involved in such type of offence. On such grounds, it is submitted that the prayer for bail of the Petitioners be rejected at this juncture.

6. Considering the submissions made by the learned counsels appearing for the respective parties and on a careful examination of the surrounding facts and circumstances of the present case, further taking note of the fact that charge sheet has already been filed and that there is no possibility of the trial being commenced in the near future and further taking note of the period of custodial detention, this Court is inclined to release the Petitioners on bail.

7. Hence, it is directed that each of the Petitioners be released on bail in the aforesaid case on furnishing bail bond of Rs.50,000/- (Rupees forty thousand) with two local solvent sureties each for the like amount to the satisfaction of the Court in seisin over the matter. The release of the Petitioners shall also be subject to such other terms and conditions as would be fixed by the court in seisin over the matter. Violation of any of the terms and conditions shall entail cancellation of bail.

8. It is further directed that the bail granted to the Petitioners is subject to the condition that the court below shall verify whether the Petitioners are having any criminal antecedent of similar nature.
