ORDER

11.11.2026

Order No.

01. 1. This matter is taken up through Hybrid Arrangement (Virtual/ Physical Mode).

2. Heard learned counsel appearing for the Petitioner and learned Additional Standing Counsel appearing for the State-Opposite Party. Perused the materials placed before this Court.

3. The present bail application under Section 483 of B.N.S.S has been filed by the Petitioner for regular bail in connection with C.T Case No. 942 of 2024 arising out of Bhawanipatna P.S. Case No. 355 of 2024, pending in the Court of learned S.D.J.M., Bhawanipatna for alleged commission of offence punishable under Sections 126(2)/115(2)/109(l)/224(4)/3(5) of BNS 2023.

4. It is stated by the learned counsel for the Petitioner that the Petitioner was earlier arrested in connection with the present case and thereafter he was released on bail. He further contended that the Petitioner failed to appear before the learned Trial Court due to a communication gap with his conducting counsel and an N.B.W. of arrest was issued on 09.07.2026. In execution of such N.B.W., the Petitioner has again re-arrested and taken into custody on 04.09.2026 and since then the Petitioner is in the jail custody. The learned counsel for the Petitioner further submitted that the Petitioner has been booked for an offence punishable under Section 109 of BNS, however, the injuries sustained by the injured and simple in nature. It was also brought to the notice of the Court that in the meantime, the investigation has been concluded and the final charge-sheet has already been filed. The learned counsel for the Petitioner at this juncture contended that the Petitioner is ready and willing to abide by any terms and conditions and will cooperate with the learned Trial Court for early conclusion of the trial by remaining present on each and every date fixed.

5. Learned Additional Standing Counsel appearing for the State-Opposite Party, on the other hand, objected the release of the Petitioner on bail on the ground that the Petitioner has already made a default and there is no guarantee that the Petitioner shall cooperate with the early conclusion of the trial, on such ground the learned counsel appearing for the State objected to the release of the Petitioner on bail.

6. Having heard the learned counsels appearing for the respective parties and on a careful examination of the surrounding facts and circumstances of the present case and further taking note of the fact that the Petitioner had earlier been released on bail and was subsequently taken into custody due to his default in appearing before the learned Trial court and he is in custody since 04.09.2026, this Court is inclined to provide another opportunity to the Petitioner to cooperate with the learned Trial Court for early conclusion of the trial. Accordingly, it is directed that the release the Petitioner on bail subject to imposition of stringent conditions.

7. Hence, it is directed that the Petitioner be released on bail in the aforesaid case on furnishing bail bond of Rs.40,000/-(Rupees Forty thousand) with two local solvent sureties each for the like amount to the satisfaction of the Court in seisin over the matter.

8. It is open for the Court in seisin over the matter to impose any other terms and conditions as may be deemed just and proper. However, violation of any of the conditions shall entail cancellation of the bail application.

9. The BLAPL is, accordingly, disposed of.

Urgent certified copy of this order be granted to the Petitioner on proper application.
