ORDER

Order No.

02. 1. This matter is taken up through Hybrid Arrangement (Virtual /Physical Mode).

2. Heard learned counsel appearing for the Petitioner and learned Additional Standing Counsel appearing for the State-Opposite Party. Perused the bail application as well as the documents annexed thereto.

3. The present bail application under Section 483 of B.N.S.S., 2023 has been filed by the Petitioner for regular bail in connection with G.R. Case No.224 of 2026, arising out of Salepur P.S. Case No.230 of 2026, pending in the court of learned J.M.F.C., Salepur, for alleged commission of offences punishable under Sections 303(2)/3(5) of the B.N.S., 2023.

4. It is submitted by the learned counsel for the Petitioner that the Petitioner is languishing in jail custody since 03.09.2026. He further submitted that investigation has been concluded and charge sheet has been filed. He further submitted that the Petitioner belongs to the locality, therefore, there is no chance of his absconding. Further, referring to the allegation made in the F.I.R., learned counsel for the Petitioner submitted that initially the F.I.R. was lodged against the unknown accused persons. So far the present Petitioner is concerned, it is stated that he has been taken on remand in the present case. It was argued before this Court that there exists no material with regard to the involvement of the Petitioner in the present crime. He further contended that although the Petitioner is having some similar criminal antecedents and that he has been taken on remand in this case by the local police, however he is ready and willing to abide by any stringent terms and conditions that would be imposed by this Court in the event he is released on bail.

5. Learned counsel for the State, on the other hand, opposed the release of the Petitioner on bail on the ground of gravity and seriousness of the allegation. He further submitted that the Petitioner is a habitual offender and in the event he is released on bail, he might indulge in similar criminal offence. On such grounds, it is submitted that the prayer for bail of the Petitioner be rejected at this juncture.

6. Having regard to the submissions made by the learned counsels appearing for the respective parties and on a careful examination of the nature and gravity of the allegation, further taking note of the custodial detention of the Petitioner and the fact that charge sheet has been filed, this Court is inclined to release the Petitioner on bail.

7. Hence, it is directed that the Petitioner be released on bail in the aforesaid case on furnishing bail bond of Rs.40,000/-(Rupees forty thousand) with two local solvent sureties each for the like amount to the satisfaction of the Court in seisin over the matter. While imposing conditions, the court in seisin over the matter shall also impose the following conditions:-

i) He shall not indulge in similar criminal activities while on bail; and

ii) He shall appear before the jurisdictional Police Station once in a fortnight, preferably on Sunday in between 10.00 A.M. to 1.00 P.M., for a period of three months, thereafter once in a month till conclusion of the trial.

8. It is open for the court in seisin over the matter to impose any other conditions as may be deemed just and proper. Violation of any of the conditions imposed either by this Court or the court in seisin over the matter shall entail cancellation of bail.

9. The BLAPL is, accordingly, disposed of.

Issue urgent certified copy of this order as per Rules.
