CORAM:
HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE ADITYA KUMAR MOHAPATRA

ORDER
09.11.2026

Order No.

01. 1. This matter is taken up through Hybrid mode.

2. Heard learned counsel for the Petitioner. Perused the writ petition as well as the prayer made therein.

3. By filing the present application the plaintiff in C.S. No.59 of 2022 pending in the Court of learned Senior Civil Judge, Rourkela has approached this Court with a prayer for a direction to the learned trial Court to conclude the hearing of the suit as expeditiously as possible.

4. Learned counsel for the Petitioner, at the outset, contended that the Petitioner as plaintiff filed a suit for partition in the year 2022. He further submitted that in the meantime evidence from the plaintiff's side has been closed. Being aggrieved by such delay in disposal of the suit, the plaintiff has approached this Court by filing the present application.

5. Taking into consideration the submission made by the learned counsel for the Petitioner, on a careful examination of the documents filed along with the writ petition, and on a close scrutiny of the factual background of the present case, and keeping in view the fact that the suit is of the year 2022, this Court is not inclined to pass any specific direction fixing any time limit for disposal of the suit. The refusal of this Court to interfere and to grant the relief prayed for in the present writ petition is based on the fact that there are many cases pending before the Civil Courts in the State of Odisha. However, while disposing of the present writ petition, this Court grants liberty to the Petitioner to move the learned trial Court for early disposal of the suit. The learned trial Court, subject to convenience as well as the pendency of suits, shall do well to pass necessary orders thereon and, if possible, make every endeavor to dispose of the suit as expeditiously as possible. The parties are directed to cooperate with the learned trial Court and not to take any unnecessary adjournments.

6. With the aforesaid observation/direction, the writ petition stands disposed of.
