ORDER

Order No.

01. 1. This matter is taken up through Hybrid Arrangement (Virtual/ Physical Mode).

2. Heard learned counsel for the Petitioner and learned counsel for the State. Perused the materials placed before this Court.

3. The present bail application under Section 483 of B.N.S.S., 2023 has been filed by the Petitioner for regular bail in connection with C.T. case No.577 of 2026 arising out of Narasinghpur P.S. Case No.256 of 2026 pending in the Court of learned J.M.F.C. Narasinghpur for the alleged commission of offence punishable under Sections 303(2) & 316(4) of BNSS, 2023.

4. It is submitted by the learned counsel for the Petitioner that the Petitioner is in custody since 28.09.2026. He further contended that the investigation is substantially going on and the charge-sheet has not been filed. He further submitted that the Petitioner has no criminal antecedent and he belongs to the locality, therefore, there is no chance of absconding. He further submitted that all the offences are triable by magistrate and the maximum punishment is up to seven years. In such view of the matter, learned counsel for the Petitioner submitted that the Petitioner be released on bail on any terms and conditions that would be imposed by this Court while the Petitioner release on bail.

5. Learned Additional Government Advocate appearing for the State-Opposite Party, on the other hand, opposed the release of the Petitioner on bail on the ground that the investigation is still on, there is every likelihood that he might abscond, which may cause delay in trial. Therefore, he submitted that the prayer for bail of the Petitioner be rejected at this juncture.

6. Having heard the learned counsels appearing for the respective parties and on a careful examination of the surrounding facts and circumstances of the present case and further keeping the view the period of detention of the Petitioner in jail custody and the offences are triable by magistrate and the maximum punishment is up to seven years, this Court is inclined to release the Petitioner on bail subject to imposition of stringent conditions.

7. Hence, it is directed that the Petitioner be released on bail in the aforesaid case on furnishing bail bond of Rs.35,000/-(Rupees Thirty five Thousand) with two local solvent sureties each for the like amount to the satisfaction of the Court in seisin over the matter.

8. It is open for the Court in seisin over the matter to impose any other conditions as may be deemed just and proper. Violation of any of the conditions shall entail cancellation of the bail application.

9. The BLAPL is, accordingly, disposed of.

Urgent certified copy of this order be granted as per rules.
