FAO No.1047 of 2026
CNR No.ODHC010854002026

Prafulla Kumar Das & Others …. Appellants
Mr. B. K. Biswal, Advocate

-Versus-

State of Odisha & Others …. Respondents
Mr. S.K. Parhi, ASC

CORAM:
MR. JUSTICE R.K. PATTANAIK

ORDER
04.11.2026
I.A. No.1377 of 2026

Order No.

01. 1. Heard Mr. Biswal, learned counsel for the appellants.

2. Instant I.A. is filed under Section 5 of the Limitation Act seeking condonation of delay for the reasons stated.

3. A delay of 2782 days is reported as per the SR.

4. Recorded the submissions of learned counsel for the respective parties. Considering the grounds pleaded in the I.A with the explanation offered towards the delay, this Court, recording the objection of the State, is inclined to condone the same subject to payment of cost of Rs.2000/- to the Juvenile Justice Fund managed by the Odisha State Legal Services Authority. Consequently, the I.A. stands allowed with the delay being condoned.

FAO No.1047 of 2026

02. 1. Heard Mr. Biswal, learned counsel for the appellants & Mr. Parhi, learned ASC for the State.

2. Instant appeal is filed under Section 24(C) of the Odisha Education Amendment Act, 1998 by the appellant assailing the impugned order dated 18th January, 2019 passed by the learned State Education Tribunal, Odisha, Bhubaneswar in G.I.A. Case No.468 of 2012 at Annexure-6 and to direct respondent Nos.1 & 2 to approve their appointment in terms of the Grant-in-Aid Order, 1994 instead of Block Grant w.e.f. 20th January, 2009 as per the Grant-in-Order of 2004 and to pay their staff the differential salary within the reasonable time keeping in view the judgment of this Court in State of Odisha and another Vrs. Ratnakar Mohapatra and another (FAO No.509 of 2014) disposed of on 19th March, 2025 along with batch of cases and such other grounds stated.

3. Mr. Biswal, learned counsel for the appellants submits that challenging the denial of financial benefits, this Court, considering the same in FAO No.509 of 2014 held and concluded that the decision in State of Odisha and another Vrs. Anup Kumar Senapati and another (2019) 19 SCC 626 is not an absolute bar if there has been recommendation for Grant-in-Aid under the GIA Order, 1994 is prior to the repealing of the same. Mr. Biswal, learned counsel would further submit that the decision therein of this Court has been upheld by the Apex Court in Muslemin Mahammad and others Vrs. State of Odisha and others and batch of cases arising out of SLP(C) Diary No.6943 of 2026. The submission is that the Grant-in-Aid is permissible in view of the decision in Ratnakar Mohapatra (supra) upheld by the Apex Court subject to verification of the recommendation made prior to the repeal of GIA Order, 1994. The further submission is that such orders have been set aside by this Court after the decision in Ratnakar Mohapatra (supra) which has been upheld by the Apex Court. One of such orders in FAO No.729 of 2026 (Sambhu Prasad Das Vrs. State of Odisha and others) dated 29th June, 2026 is produced by Mr. Biswal, learned counsel for the appellants at the time of hearing and the same is gone through.

4. Response of the State is recorded.

5. Having regard to the above facts pleaded on record and submission of Mr. Biswal, learned counsel for the appellants and that the order in FAO No.509 of 2014 has been finally upheld by the Apex Court in Muslemin Mahammad (supra), this Court is inclined to set aside the impugned order at Annexure-6 since the factual background of the present case is identical to the one involved therein.

6. Accordingly, it is ordered.

7. In the result, the appeal stands allowed with the impugned order in GIA Case No. 468 of 2012 of the learned State Education Tribunal, Odisha, Bhubaneswar under Annexure-6 is hereby set aside and quashed. It is directed that respondent No.2 shall consider extension of benefits in favour of the appellant as per the principles decided in State of Odisha and another Vrs. Ratnakar Mohapatra and another (FAO No.509 of 2014) disposed of along with Batch of cases on 19th March, 2025 with a decision thereon at the earliest preferably within a period of six weeks from the date of receipt of a copy of this order.

8. Urgent copy of this order be issued as per rules.
