ORDER
16.11.2026

Order No.

01. 1. This matter is taken up through Hybrid Arrangement (Virtual /Physical Mode).

2. Heard learned counsel appearing for the Petitioner and learned Additional Government Advocate appearing for the State-Opposite Party. Perused the materials placed before this Court.

3. The present bail application under Section 483 of B.N.S.S. has been filed by the Petitioner for regular bail in connection with G.R. Case No.285 of 2026, arising out of Bangomunda P.S. Case No.161 of 2026, pending in the Court of learned J.M.F.C., Bangomunda for alleged commission of offence punishable under Sections 296/115(5)/351(3)/74/308(2) of the BNS.

4. It is stated by the learned counsel for the Petitioner that the Petitioner is in custody since 08.10.2026. He further contended that in the meantime, investigation has been concluded. Learned counsel for the Petitioner further submitted that the Petitioner belongs to locality there is no chance of absconding. He further submitted that although the Petitioner is having no criminal antecedent and that the Petitioner is ready and willing to abide by any stringent terms and conditions that would be imposed by this Court, in the event his release on bail.

5. Learned Additional Govt. Advocate on the other hand opposed the bail application of the Petitioner on the ground of gravity and seriousness of the allegation. He further submitted that in the event the Petitioner is released on bail there is every likelihood that he might have indulge in similar criminal offences, considering the fact that he is having no criminal antecedent. On such ground, learned counsel for the State prayed for rejection of the bail application.

6. Having regard to the rival contention raised by the learned counsels appearing for both sides, further on a careful analysis of the nature and gravity of the allegation and that the Petitioner is languishing in custody since 08.10.2026, this Court is inclined to release the Petitioner on bail subject to imposition of stringent conditions.

7. Hence, it is directed that the Petitioner be released on bail in the aforesaid case on furnishing a bail bond of Rs.35,000/- (Rupees Thirty-five thousand) with two solvent sureties each for the like amount to the satisfaction of the learned court in seisin over the matter. The release of the Petitioner shall also be subject to such other terms and conditions as would be fixed by the court in seisin over the matter. Violation of any condition shall entail cancellation of bail.

8. It is further directed that the bail granted to the Petitioner is subject to verification of injury as well as criminal antecedent. In the event it is found that the injury sustained by the injured as grievous in nature or that the Petitioner is having any criminal antecedent, then this bail order shall automatically stand revoked.

9. The BLAPL is, accordingly, disposed of.

Issue urgent certified copy of this order as per Rules.
