Order On Board

29/10/2026

1. This is first bail application filed under Section 482 of the Bharatiya Nagarik Suraksha Sanhita, 2023 (for short 'BNSS') for grant of anticipatory bail to applicant who is apprehending his arrest in connection with Crime No.153/2026 registered at Police Station Frezarpur, District Bastar (C.G.) under Section 318 (4) of Bhartiya Nyay Sanhita, 2023.

2. Case of prosecution, in brief, is that the complainant lodged written report in concerned police station alleging that applicant obtained a sum of Rs.3,00,000/-, in two installments of Rs.1,50,000/- each, from her on the pretext of providing government job of Staff Nurse to her by using his influence, but he failed to provide her government job and also not returned the aforementioned amount to her. Based on aforementioned allegations, instant crime is registered against the applicant and the police are in search of applicant.

3. Learned counsel for applicant would submit that the applicant is though not admitting the allegation levelled against him in FIR, however, he has paid a sum of Rs.60,000/- to complainant earlier and further paid a sum of Rs.1,00,000/- in cash. An agreement has also been entered between the parties to the effect that applicant will repay balance amount within one month. Hence, he prays that the applicant be extended benefit of anticipatory bail.

4. Learned State Counsel submits that pursuant to observation made by this Court, information from the concerned police station has been sought and according to instructions telephonically received, after inquiring into the ground as pleaded, the complainant has admitted receipt of Rs.1 Lakh from, the applicant.

5. Heard learned counsel for the parties.

6. Taking into consideration the submission of learned counsel for respective parties and nature of allegations, without commenting anything on merits of the case, I am inclined to release the applicant on anticipatory bail. Accordingly, the anticipatory bail application is allowed. It is directed that in the event of arrest of applicant in connection with aforementioned crime, he shall be released on bail his executing a personal bond in sum of Rs.25,000/- with one surety in the like sum to the satisfaction of the Arresting Officer concerned. The applicant shall also abide by following conditions :-

(i) he shall make himself available for interrogation before the investigating officer as and when required;

(ii) he shall not, directly or indirectly, make any inducement, threat or promise to any person acquainted with the facts of the case so as to dissuade him/her from disclosing such facts to the Court or to any police officer;

(iii) he shall not act, in any manner, which will be prejudicial to fair and expeditious trial; and

iv) he shall appear before the trial Court on each and every date given to him by the said Court till disposal of trial.
