Order on Board

27/10/2026

1. This is the first bail application filed under Section 483 of the Bharatiya Nagarik Suraksha Sanhita, 2023 for grant of regular bail to the applicant who has been arrested in connection with Crime No. 394/2026 registered at Police Station Jamul, District Durg (C.G.) for the offence punishable under Section 21 (b) and Section 22(a) of NDPS Act. The applicant is in custody since 08.06.2026.

2. Case of the prosecution, in brief, is that on the basis of a secret information during patrolling, the applicant was apprehended near the under construction building of BNS School, Housing Board Bhilai Jamul. Upon search of contraband a total of 49.8 grams heroin (brown sugar) was seized from a small polythene packet found in the lower pants of the applicant. On the basis of the aforesaid, the present FIR was registered and he was taken in custody.

3. Learned counsel for the applicant submits that that applicant is innocent and has been falsely implicated in the case. It is further submitted that the applicant has no criminal antecedents, the investigation has been completed and the charge-sheet has already been filed, he has been languishing in custody since 08.06.2026, and the conclusion of the trial is likely to take considerable time; thus, the applicant may be enlarged on regular bail.

4. On the other hand, learned State counsel opposes the bail application and submitted that the contraband seized in the present matter is of 49.8 gms of heroin (brown sugar), thus, the applicant may not be enlarged on bail.

5. I have heard learned counsel for the parties and perused the case diary.

6. Taking into consideration the facts and circumstances of the case, particularly that the intermediate quantity of contraband was seized from the possession of accused; further considering that the applicant has no criminal antecedents, the investigation is complete and the charge-sheet has already been filed, he has been in custody since 08.06.2026, and the trial is likely to take considerable time to conclude, this Court, without commenting on the merits of the case, is inclined to release the applicant on bail. Accordingly, the bail application is allowed.

7. It is directed that in the event of the applicant executing a personal bond for a sum of Rs.50,000/- with one surety in the like sum to the satisfaction of the concerned trial Court, he shall be released on bail, on following conditions :-

   (i) he shall not directly or indirectly make any inducement, threat or promise to any person acquainted with the facts of the case so as to dissuade him from disclosing such fact to the Court,

   (ii) he shall not act in any manner which will be prejudicial to fair and expeditious trial, and

   (iii) he shall appear before the trial Court on each and every date given to him by the said Court till disposal of the trial.

8. The observation made hereinabove is for the purpose of deciding this bail application only, the trial Court shall decide the case on its own merits.
