Order on Board

26.10.2026

1. This is the First bail application filed under Section 483 of the Bhartiya Nagarik Suraksha Sanhita, 2023 for grant of regular bail to the applicant who has been arrested in connection with Crime No. 28/2026 registered at Police Station : Singhanpuri, District : Kabirdham (C.G.) for the offence punishable under Sections 118(1), 119(1), 351(3) and 331 (6) of Bhartiya Nyaya Sanhita, 2023.

2. The prosecution story, in brief, is that on 19.07.2026, at about 08:30 p.m., a dispute ensued between the present applicant and the complainant, Satyanarayan Dubey. The present applicant allegedly assaulted the complainant and his wife, Vandana Dubey, with a sickle. It is alleged that both the injured persons sustained grievous injuries. The FIR was lodged on the same date and was registered for the offences as stated above.

3. Learned counsel for the applicant submits that the injuries sustained by the injured persons were simple in nature, the charge-sheet has already been filed, and the applicant has been in jail since 27.07.2026. Therefore, he prays for the grant of regular bail to the present applicant.

4. On the other hand, learned State counsel opposes the bail application and submits that the applicant has one criminal antecedent dating back to 2020 and that the injuries sustained by the injured persons were grievous in nature. Therefore, the applicant is not entitled to the grant of regular bail.

5. I have heard learned counsel for the parties and perused the case diary.

6. Having considered the fact that the applicant was acquitted in the case registered in the year 2020, that the injuries sustained by the injured persons, Satyanarayan Dubey and Vandana Dubey, were not grievous in nature, that the charge-sheet has already been filed, and that the applicant has been in jail since 27.07.2026, I am of the opinion that the applicant is entitled to be released on bail in this case.

7. It is directed that in the event of the applicant executing a personal bond for a sum of Rs. 50,000/- to the satisfaction of the concerned trial Court, he shall be released on bail on the following conditions:-

(a) he shall make himself available for interrogation by the police officer as and when required;

(b)he shall not directly or indirectly make any inducement, threat or promise to any person acquainted with the facts of the case so as to dissuade him from disclosing such fact to the Court; and

(c) he shall not act in any manner which will be prejudicial to a fair and expeditious trial.

The observation made hereinabove is for the purpose of deciding this bail application only, the learned trial Court shall decide the case on its own merits.
