For Applicant	:	Mr. Kaleshwar Prasad Yadav, Adv.
For Non-Applicant	:	Ms. Ankita Shukla, P.L.

Hon'ble Shri Justice Rakesh Mohan Pandey

Order on Board

27.10.2026

1. This is the first bail application filed under Section 483 of the Bhartiya Nagarik Suraksha Sanhita, 2023 for grant of regular bail to the applicant who has been arrested in connection with Crime No. 220/2026 registered at Police Station : Nandininagar, District : Durg (C.G.), for the offence punishable under Section 34(2) of the C.G. Excise Act.

2. Case of the prosecution, in brief, is that police of Police Station : Nandininagar received secret information from the informant and on the basis of said information, raid was conducted wherein 24.300 litre of country made liquor was seized from the possession of the present applicant. Thereafter, the aforesaid case was registered against the present applicant.

3. Learned Counsel for the applicant submits that the present applicant has falsely been implicated in this case and the said 24.300 litre of country made liquor was not seized from the exclusive possession of the applicant. He further submits that applicant has 02 criminal antecedents of similar nature which have been disposed. He also submits that under Section 34(2) of the C.G. Excise Act, minimum punishment is one year and maximum punishment is three years and the present applicant has been in jail since 18.08.2026, conclusion of the trial is likely to take quite long time. Therefore, he prays for grant of regular bail to the applicant.

4. On the other hand, learned counsel for the State, opposes the bail application and submits that the charge-sheet has been filed in the present case before the competent Court. She also submits that the applicant has 02 criminal antecedent of similar nature, therefore he is not entitled for grant of regular bail in the present case.

5. I have heard learned counsel appearing for the parties and perused the case diary.

6. It appears that 24.300 litre of country made liquor was seized from the present applicant and he has 02 criminal antecedent of similar nature which have been disposed. Charge-sheet has been filed, he is languishing in jail since 18.08.2026 and conclusion of the trial may take some more time, therefore, this Court is of the view that the applicant is entitled to be released on bail at this stage.

7. It is directed that in the event of the applicant executing a personal bond for a sum of Rs. 50,000/- to the satisfaction of the concerned trial Court, he shall be released on bail on the following conditions:-

(a) he shall make himself available for interrogation by the police officer as and when required;

(b)he shall not directly or indirectly make any inducement, threat or promise to any person acquainted with the facts of the case so as to dissuade him from disclosing such fact to the Court; and

(c) he shall not act in any manner which will be prejudicial to a fair and expeditious trial.

The observation made hereinabove is for the purpose of deciding this bail application only, the learned trial Court shall decide the case on its own merits.
