Order On Board

03/11/2026

1. This is first bail application filed under Section 482 of the Bharatiya Nagarik Suraksha Sanhita, 2023 (for short 'BNSS') for grant of anticipatory bail to applicant who is apprehending his arrest in connection with Crime No.101/2026 registered at Police Station Jashpur, District Jashpur (C.G.) under Sections 4, 6 and 10 of the Chhattisgarh Krishak Pashu Parirakshan Adhiniyam, 2004.
2. Case of prosecution, in brief, is that on 14.03.2026 the police received secret information that some persons are illegally transporting cattle for the purpose of slaughtering to Jharkhand in a cruel manner. The police immediately rushed towards the spot and seeing the police personnel the accused persons taking advantage of dark fled away from the spot leaving the cattle. During course of investigation, it was found that applicant was also involved in the crime in question, therefore, offence is also registered against him.

3. Learned counsel for applicant would submit that applicant is innocent and has been falsely implicated in crime in question. Applicant has been made accused only on the basis of memorandum statement of co-accused. There is no other criminal antecedent against the applicant, he is ready to co-operate with the Police in investigation and also to abide by all the terms and conditions that may be imposed by this Court while granting anticipatory bail.

4. On the other hand, learned State Counsel opposes submissions of learned counsel for applicant and submits that the persons from whom cattle have been seized has specifically stated the name of applicant and that they were transporting the cattle at the instruction of present applicant. However, he does not dispute submission of learned counsel for applicant that applicant is not having any other criminal antecedent.

5. Heard learned counsel for the parties.

6. Taking into consideration the submission of learned counsel for respective parties and nature of allegations, without commenting anything on merits of the case, I am inclined to release the applicant on anticipatory bail. Accordingly, the anticipatory bail application is allowed. It is directed that in the event of arrest of applicant in connection with aforementioned crime, he shall be released on bail his executing a personal bond in sum of Rs.25,000/- with one surety in the like sum to the satisfaction of the concerned trial Court. The applicant shall also abide by following conditions :-

(i) he shall make himself available for interrogation before the investigating officer as and when required;

(ii) he shall not, directly or indirectly, make any inducement, threat or promise to any person acquainted with the facts of the case so as to dissuade him/her from disclosing such facts to the Court or to any police officer;

(iii) he shall not act, in any manner, which will be prejudicial to fair and expeditious trial; and

iv) he shall appear before the trial Court on each and every date given to him by the said Court till disposal of trial.
