Order On Board

28/10/2026

1. This is first bail application filed under Section 482 of the Bharatiya Nagarik Suraksha Sanhita, 2023 (for short ‘BNSS’) for grant of anticipatory bail to applicant who is apprehending his arrest in connection with Crime No.124/2026 registered at Police Chowki-Dokda, Police Station Kansabel, District Jashpur (C.G.) under Sections 64 (2) (m) and 69 of Bhartiya Nyay Sanhita, 2023 (for short ‘BNS’).

2. Case of prosecution, in brief, is that on the false pretext of marriage, applicant repeatedly established physical relations with the complainant for the last four years and thereafter he refused to marry her.

3. Learned counsel for applicant would submit that applicant is innocent and has been falsely implicated in crime in question. Allegation levelled against the applicant is absolutely false and baseless. The complainant was a consenting party. She was having love affair with the applicant and on that basis physical relations were established. Even on the first date of alleged commission of offence when physical relation was established by applicant with complainant on alleged promise of marriage, the complainant was major. There is no criminal antecedent against the applicant, he is ready to co- operate with the Police in investigation and also to abide by all the terms and conditions that may be imposed by this Court while granting anticipatory bail.

4. On the other hand, learned State Counsel opposes submissions of learned counsel for applicant and submits that as per allegation, physical relations were established by applicant on the false promise of marrying the complainant.

5. Heard learned counsel for the parties.

6. Taking into consideration the submission of learned counsel for respective parties and nature of allegations, without commenting anything on merits of the case, I am inclined to release the applicant on anticipatory bail. Accordingly, the anticipatory bail application is allowed. It is directed that in the event of arrest of applicant in connection with aforementioned crime, he shall be released on bail his executing a personal bond in sum of Rs.25,000/- with one surety in the like sum to the satisfaction of the concerned trial Court. The applicant shall also abide by following conditions :-

(i) he shall make himself available for interrogation before the investigating officer as and when required;

(ii) he shall not, directly or indirectly, make any inducement, threat or promise to any person acquainted with the facts of the case so as to dissuade him/her from disclosing such facts to the Court or to any police officer;

(iii) he shall not act, in any manner, which will be prejudicial to fair and expeditious trial; and

iv) he shall appear before the trial Court on each and every date given to him by the said Court till disposal of trial.
