1. The applicant has preferred this first bail application under Section 483 of the Bharatiya Nagarik Suraksha Sanhita, 2023 for grant of regular bail as he has been arrested in connection with Crime No. 248/2026 registered at Police Station Jaijaipur, District Sakti (C.G.) for the offence punishable under Section 34(2) of Chhattisgarh Excise Act, 1915 (hereinafter, "the Excise Act").

2. Case of the prosecution, in brief, is that as per the information received from an informer, police conducted a raid and seized 30 bulk liters hand made liquor from the car of the applicant and thereafter, registered the aforesaid offence against the present applicant.

3. Learned counsel appearing for the applicant, would submit that the applicant has falsely been implicated in the present case and he is innocent. He would further submit that the applicant has no previous criminal antecedents. He would further contend that the applicant is in jail since 28/09/2026, the charge-sheet has already been filed, and the trial is likely to take considerable time to conclude, therefore, the applicant be enlarged on regular bail.

4. On the other hand, learned counsel for the non-applicant/State, would oppose the bail application and submit that the charge-sheet has already been filed before the competent Court. She would further submit that 30 liters of home made liquor was seized from the possession of the present applicant, therefore, the applicant is not entitled to grant of regular bail.

5. I have heard learned counsel for the parties and perused the case diary.

6. Taking into consideration the facts and circumstances of the case, the nature and gravity of the allegations levelled against the applicant, and the fact that the 30 litres of hand made liquor has been seized from the possession of the applicant, further considering that there is no previous criminal antecedent of the applicant, charge-sheet has already been filed, the applicant is in jail since 28/09/2026, and conclusion of trial is likely to take some time, this Court is inclined to grant regular bail to the applicant. Accordingly, the bail application is allowed.
