Order On Board

27/10/2026

1. Applicant has preferred this application under Section 482 of the Bharatiya Nagarik Suraksha Sanhita, 2023 for grant of anticipatory bail as he is apprehending his arrest in connection with Crime No. 464 of 2026 registered at Police Station- Bhilai Nagar, District – Durg (CG) for the offence punishable under Sections 69 of BNS, 2023.

2. Case of the prosecution, in brief, is that the victim lodged written report in the concerned police station alleging that the applicant on the pretext of marriage committed sexual intercourse with her and thereafter, refused to marry. Based on the report, aforementioned crime was registered in which, the applicant is apprehending his arrest.

3. Learned counsel for applicant would submit that applicant is innocent, he has been falsely implicated in crime. He has not committed any offence as alleged. He contended that the victim is a married lady having a male child and if the allegations of having physical relationship between the two is to be considered, it will be a consensual relationship. He further submits that the allegation of committing physical relationship with the victim on the pretext of marriage is false as the victim is already a married lady aged about 26 years. Hence, he may be granted anticipatory bail.
4. On the other hand, learned counsel for State opposes the submission of learned counsel for the applicant. However, he do not dispute the submission of the counsel for the applicant regarding the marital status of the victim and her age.
5. I have heard learned counsel for the parties and perused the documents placed on record.
6. Taking into consideration the facts and circumstances of the case, nature of allegations, submission of learned counsel for the respective parties, there is no other criminal antecedent against the applicant, age of the victim, without commenting anything on merits of the case, I am inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the applicant.
7. Accordingly, the application is allowed and it is directed that in the event of arrest of applicant in connection with the crime in question, he shall be released on anticipatory bail by the Officer arresting him on his executing a personal bond in the sum of

Rs.25,000/- with one surety in the like sum to the satisfaction of the concerned arresting officer. Applicant shall also abide by the following conditions :-

> (i) that the applicant shall make himself available for interrogation before the Investigating Officer as and when required;
> (ii) the applicant shall not, directly or indirectly, make any inducement, threat or promise to any person acquainted with the facts of the case so as to dissuade him from disclosing such facts to the Court or to any police officer;

Certified copy as per rules.
