1. This is first bail application filed under Section 482 of the Bharatiya Nagarik Suraksha Sanhita, 2023 (for short ‘BNSS’) for grant of anticipatory bail to applicant who is apprehending his arrest in connection with Crime No.797/2026 registered at Police Station Civil Lines Rampur, Korba under Sections 69 of Bhartiya Nyay Sanhita, 2023 (for short ‘BNS’).
2. Case of prosecution, in brief, is that on the false pretext of marriage, applicant has established physical relations with the complainant for the first in the year 2024 and thereafter continued to establish physical relations with her on the assurance of marriage till July 2026. When the complainant asked him to marry her, he avoided to marry her for one reason or another.

3. Learned counsel for applicant would submit that the applicant is innocent and has not committed the offence as alleged. Even if the allegation of establishing physical relations is accepted to be correct, then it will be a consensual relationship as the victim is aged about 21 years old. There is no other criminal antecedent against the applicant, he is ready to co- operate with the Police in investigation and also to abide by all the terms and conditions that may be imposed by this Court while granting anticipatory bail.

4. On the other hand, learned State Counsel submits that as per allegation, physical relations were established by applicant on the false promise of marrying the complainant and thereafter he refused to marry her. On putting specific query as to the period of relationship between the two, she submits that relationship continued for a period of more than 2 ½ years and during this period, they established physical relations so many times.

5. Heard learned counsel for the parties.

6. Taking into consideration the submission of learned counsel for respective parties; nature of allegations and considering the age of complainant to be around 21 years, without commenting anything on merits of the case, I am inclined to release the applicant on anticipatory bail. Accordingly, the anticipatory bail application is allowed. It is directed that in the event of arrest of applicant in connection with aforementioned crime, he shall be released on bail his executing a personal bond in sum of Rs.25,000/- with one surety in the like sum to the satisfaction of the Arresting Officer concerned. iv) he shall appear before the trial Court on each and every date given to him by the said Court till disposal of trial.
